Instructions

Working with a partner, engage in a debate about the advantages and disadvantages of entrepreneurship. Each partner should assume one side of the argument. Depending on which side of the debate you select, use the following guiding questions to construct your persuasive argument.

Position: Advantages of Entrepreneurship

- What impact does entrepreneurship have on local, state, national, and international communities and economies?
- How can risk be minimized or limited when starting a business venture?
- What entrepreneurship data or trends can you search, analyze, and interpret to support your position?

Position: Disadvantages of Entrepreneurship

- What are the risks involved in entrepreneurship?
- What are the drawbacks of entrepreneurship?
- What entrepreneurship data or trends can you search, analyze, and interpret to support your position?
