Instructions

Review Ethics in Entrepreneurship, which was about an entrepreneur preparing to present a business plan to obtain funding. After reviewing the case study, write a 1–2 page essay about the choices Samuel can make by answering the following questions:

1. Do you agree or disagree with Samuel’s approach?
2. If you were Samuel, how would you handle the situation?
3. What other areas of his business plan could be revised to help him profit sooner without having to fabricate financial data?
