

CHAPTER 1 A Look at Wants and Needs

Analytical Skills: Goods and Services, Wants and Needs

DIRECTIONS: Classify each business in the table below by its main purpose. A gas station, for example, might sell snacks and maps, but its main purpose is to sell gasoline. Some businesses might offer both a good and a service. Place a check mark (✓) beneath each category that applies. Then answer the following questions.

	Good	Service	Want	Need	Public	Private
Four-star restaurant
Grocery store
Post office
Barber shop
Discount clothing store
State college
Local bus company
Book store
Movie theater
Electric company

1. Which businesses fulfill wants that are still important to your daily life?

---

---

---

2. Which businesses focus equally on goods and services?

---

---

---